4.2 Matters arising There no outstanding matters arising.
5. Big Local 5.1 Strategic issue discussion: early years evaluation John thanked Jayne for her work on the early years evaluation, and Kevin commented that it was a well written report. In answer to questions raised: Kevin said that key aspects of the report, and any associated actions, will be discussed as part of the trustee away day in January 2015. Jayne is developing a strategy and an evaluation summary will be produced, as it was not planned to launch the full report. This should be ready by the end of January 2015. Jayne said there will also be a communications plan in place by end of January, and that trustee comments would be welcome. Karen said that she would be happy to be involved in this. Kevin suggested that all trustees put forward their thoughts now and asked Jayne if trustees could see the communications plan once something has been put together. Jayne advised that a draft would be available soon and would be circulated. Debbie commented that programme development and external communications was probably a six to nine month process and that Big Lottery Fund will be interested to see what we are going to do. Debbie also mentioned that she is looking to appoint a communications agency because there is going to be a need for more communications and that an agency brief will be out before Christmas with the hope that an agency is in place by mid-January. The board then noted the report. 5.2 Evaluation framework / success measures / theory of change Kevin thanked Jayne and John for the work done. A few of the trustees had already fed into this when attending the early years evaluation session on 27 November 2014. In answer to questions raised: Jayne advised that there were more things to add to this subject and that when the options paper is available learning will be brought in. She also advised that this was a basis for discussion and that more work would be done between now and the trustee away day in January 2015. Alice suggested that trustees feed things in before the away day and Jayne advised that there is a more detailed paper than what had been circulated if trustees want to see it. It was suggested a list of milestones be added to show where we are getting to, for example progressive milestones for areas. But it was acknowledged	Jayne to do summary report. Jayne to circulate draft communications plan. Debbie to circulate brief on communications agency and timeline.

that milestones is not an evaluation task. The board then noted the report. 5.3 Strategic meeting with the Big Lottery Fund about Big Local (verbal report) Kevin provided a short verbal report on the six monthly strategic meeting with Big Lottery Fund, in early December 2014. He said it had been a constructive meeting. In answer to questions raised: Big Lottery Fund wants to hear the themes and stories that are coming out of Big Local, as well as progress against the four Big Local outcomes. They are also very keen to hear what lessons we are learning. They are interested in economic and social outcomes, and are keen to see effective communication / high profile news about what is going on. Debbie confirmed there are clear communications routes with the Big Lottery Fund, and we would continue to feed them stories and data as we receive it. 5.4 Research and learning In answer to a question raised, Jayne confirmed that interviews for the longitudinal research would be taking place the following day, on 10 December 2014. The board then noted the report. 5.5 Programme delivery and development Rachel informed the trustees that there was a new section in the report on programme development. In answer to questions raised: Rachel advised that complaints had not been reported on this time as there was nothing significant to report. She added that there had been one complaint, which was rejected because it was anonymous. She also advised that complaints will be reported on at the next meeting. The new complaints procedure is now in place; Kevin thanked Daniel for his input on this. Rachel explained that the need for at least eight people to be on a partnership came from the way the programme was originally set up. The issue of burnout in partnerships is mentioned in Debbie's report, and initial thoughts on this subject will be discussed during the away day in January 2015. Rachel also advised that the issue of burnout is touched upon in the training programme for people in Big Local areas, in 2015. The board then noted the report.	Rachel to add complaints to report for next meeting.

Karen offered to advise on the communications agency tender and fees. With regard to the large increase in spend on plans, Rachel advised that this was partly because the average amount of plan funding being requested by

However, if a monitoring report showed that an area had not spent the money funded, then they do not get the next drawdown at that point. In response to a discussion about the effect that constructive obligations have on Big Local Trust's management accounts, Nicola said that she was happy to present financial information about actuals against both budget and cashflow, so that the trustees can clearly see and understand how funding is being spent. Kevin suggested that at some point in the future, the board should consider how to ensure that the endowment is fully spent by the end of the programme. Nicola will review the budget for 2015-16, the cashflow for 2015-17, and the 15-year budget, in the new year. The board can, with Nicola's advice, adjust proposed future expenditure taking into account experiences this year. Social investment is a topic worthy of strategic discussion; although there is interest in the idea of social investment, it has proved difficult to get any loan agreements in place. Kevin suggested that this would be worth putting on a future board agenda, including suggestions around how we may better progress social investment. The board then agreed the finance report and reforecast budget to year-end.	Nicola to review the budget for 2015-16, the cashflow for 2015-17, and the 15-year budget, in the new year.
